² With respect to ERS, this stipulation does not modify or override the Stipulation between the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico regarding the Tolling Statute of Limitations and Order [ECF No. 5271].

Bankruptcy Code (the “Statutory Deadlines”) shall be tolled such that the Statutory Deadlines shall expire two hundred seventy (270) days from and after the date on which the Statutory Deadlines would have expired in the absence of this Stipulation unless the Commonwealth or AAFAF provides written notice of early termination (the “Termination Notice”) to (a) the Court, through the filing of an informative motion, and (b) counsel to the statutory committee of unsecured creditors appointed in the cases other than COFINA (the “Creditors’ Committee”), by serving a copy of such Termination Notice upon Paul Hastings LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10166, Attn: Luc A. Despins, Esq., by email transmission (lucdespins@paulhastings.com), in which case, the Statutory Deadlines shall expire on the date that is one hundred fifty (150) days from the delivery of such Termination Notice plus the number of days between the Stipulation Effective Date, as defined below, and the date on which the Statutory Deadlines would have expired in the absence of this Stipulation to the Court; provided, however, that, the foregoing is without prejudice to (y) the rights, interests and defenses that may be raised by AAFAF or any of the Governmental Entities in connection with any such Causes of Action, other than the applicable statute of limitations, laches, or any other time-related defense, except that AAFAF and the Governmental Entities expressly reserve the right to argue that (i) any applicable statute of limitation or statute of repose applicable to a Cause of Action expired prior to the date of execution of this Stipulation; (ii) that Section 108(a) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to extend the time for filing any Cause of Action to which a statute of repose applies; and (iii) that a statute of repose may not be extended by an agreement of the parties (provided that that any party reserves the right to oppose any such argument; and provided further that if a statute of repose may be extended by an agreement of the parties, this Stipulation shall serve as such an agreement) and, (z) the treatment of the Statutory Deadlines or any Cause of Action as may be provided in a plan of

2. The Parties hereto shall have the right to extend the period set forth in Paragraph 1(a) above for a period specified in writing upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice and service of such notice upon the Court and counsel for the Official Committee. The Title III Debtors and AAFAF shall have the right to extend the period set forth in Paragraph 1(a) above for a period specified in writing upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice and service of such notice upon the Court and counsel the Creditors' Committee; provided, however, that, in the event that the Creditors' Committee opposes such extension or any of the terms thereof, the Creditors Committee may seek upon notice and a hearing, to terminate the existing tolled statute of limitations period prior to the applicable expiration date, or to preclude the contemplated extension thereof.

3. The persons signing this Stipulation on behalf of the Oversight Board, the Title III Debtors and AAFAF (on behalf of the Governmental Entities) have the authority to bind such parties. AAFAF's authority exists under Act 2-2017, the Enabling Act of the Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority.

4. This Stipulation shall apply to and be binding upon the Title III Debtors, AAFAF, and the Governmental Entities together with their successor and assigns, including, without limitation, any trustee which may be appointed pursuant to section 926 of the Bankruptcy Code in the Title III Cases, or any other party or person granted authority to pursue a Cause of Action (all rights to object to any application to appoint a trustee pursuant to section 926 of the

5. This Stipulation shall become effective upon the date the Court enters an order approving this Stipulation (the “Stipulation Effective Date”).

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Stipulation to the contrary, it is the intent of the Title III Debtors and the effect of this Stipulation to extend the Statutory Deadlines as to Causes of Actions of the type described in recitals B and C hereof as among all Title III Debtors other than COFINA. It being understood that to the extent a Statutory Deadline has been extended pursuant to the terms of ECF No. 5271 or 6531, the time for calculating such extension shall not be modified by this Stipulation.
